ST. LOUIS BROWNS TO PLAY BRAINERD OCT. 14

ATHLETIC PARK COMMITTEE GETS CONTRACT SIGNED

CHAIRMAN J. P. ANDERSON AND COMMITTEE SUCCESSFULLY
CONCLUDE NEGOTIATIONS

ST. LOUIS BROWNS COMING WITH
14 PLAYERS, BUSH TO PITCH
FOR BRAINERD

One of the biggest events in the history of baseball in the whole state of Minnesota will be pulled off in Brainerd when the St. Louis Browns of the American league will play a picked Brainerd team at the Athletic park at 2:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, October 14th.

Negotiations with the St. Louis Browns were successfully carried on by Chairman J. P. Anderson of the Athletic Park committee of the Chamber of Commerce and his associates.

Fresh from a game at LaCrosse, the game at Brainerd will be the first played in Minnesota by the St. Louis Browns on their barnstorming trip, permission for the same having been accorded by Commissioner Landis.

Tickets will be $1 for general admission and a huge ticket sale campaign will soon be under way touching all territory contiguous to Brainerd, stretching from Brainerd westward to Fargo, north to Bemidji, south including St. Cloud, eastward including Duluth.

A cash sum has been guaranteed and another guarantee made in case of rain. The committee will pay the St. Louis Browns the agreed upon guarantee and the remaining receipts of the game will go towards the benefit of the Athletic Park. The tickets will be sold with the understanding that if rain should cancel the game, that the buyer agrees the same shall go into the fund to pay the St. Louis Browns for their rainy day guarantee and the balance to go into the Athletic Park improvement fund.

The St. Louis Browns carry a staff of three pitchers. With Bush heading the hand picked Brainerd team and playing against his old team mates, a game can be expected that will go down in history as the biggest thing that ever happened outside of the big league world's series.

Committees will soon meet to make their selections of Brainerd players. Records and past performances will be studied. It will be one of the highest honors in local and central Minnesota baseball to be permitted to play on this team.

PUBLIC DOMAIN OF AMERICA IS UNDER SCRUTINY

AN ATTACK ON ADMINISTRATION
FROM NEW QUARTER

INTERIOR DEPARTMENT IS BUTT
OF MUCH CRIT-ICISM

By WILLIAM J. LOSH
United Press Staff Correspondent
Washington, Sept. 15.—(UP)—An attack on the administration from a new quarter is looked for this winter when the senate committee now investigating the administration of the public domain in the west concludes its inquiries and reports.

According to word reaching here, the committee, who is taking testimony in national park areas, reclamation projects and other localities where the federal government's policy is a potent agency for good or bad, is receiving much criticism of Secretary of the Interior Work.

The interior department holds the life or death of farmers and stock raisers on projects and park lands in its hands, and there are indications that the westerners believe Work is stifling their development.

The suspicion started when Arthur P. Davis, who was in charge of reclamation work during the Wilson administration, was removed by Work last year, and was replaced by Dr. Elwood Meade of California. It has been strengthened by public statements by Work in which he called for extreme conservation of development and sound business methods in administering the entire public domain.

The westerners desire a liberal a policy as possible to ease their battle with nature, even to extremely long term payments for their lands, occasional moratoriums for interest and water charges and at times what amounts to government underwriting of deficits.

Work does not consider this economical administration and has set his face against it with resultant unrest.

The situation has its political possibilities for there are eight republican senators in the 11 reclamation states who come up for reelection next year and discontent with the administration as sized up through the interior department, will not make their chances easier.

MURDER OF IOWA WOMAN, MRS. COOK, UNSOLVED MYSTERY

CORONERS' INQUEST DEVELOPS
NOTHING TO CLEAR UP
MURDER

HUSBAND CLIFFORD COOK AND SALESMAN GEORGE BUCHAN TESTIFY

Vinton, Ia., Sept. 15.—(UP)—The murder of Mrs. C. B. Cook, Benton county's temperance crusader, today seemed destined for a place with Iowa's unsolved crimes.

After hearing the testimony of Clifford Cook, husband of the slain W. C. T. U. president, and that of George Buchan, Waterloo salesman, coronor C. L. Modlin adjourned the inquest indefinitely for lack of evidence. Further investigations of remote clues will be conducted but authorities intimated that solution seemed impossible.

Buchan corroborated Cook's previous testimony. He said he was at Grundy Center a town 40 miles from Vinton on the night of the murder and that Cook was registered at a Grundy Center hotel that night. He said he knew Cook's automobile was parked in front of the hotel between the hours of 8 and 11 p. m. and that so far as he knew it remained there the balance of the night.

Cook had testified that he knew nothing of his wife's death until he drove into Vinton the following morning.

Several minor witnesses were examined and the inquest then adjourned.

HOTLY CONTESTED PRIMARY FIGHT ON IN NEW YORK

3 CORNERED REPUBLICAN RACE
HAS BEEN FORCED INTO BACKGROUND

INTENSE BETTERNESS MANI-
FESTED BETWEEN HYLAN
AND WALKER

By PAUL W. WHITE
United Press Staff Correspondent
New York, Sept. 15.—(UP)—New York's voters today will decide by ballot the most hotly contested primary campaign in the city's history.

From 40 to 75 per cent of the enrolled democrats are expected to choose between that party's mayoralty candidates, Mayor John F. Hylan and State Senator "Jimmy" Walker.

A considerably smaller percentage of republicans will divide their votes among Frank D. Waterman, John J. Lyons and William M. Bennett.

The three cornered republican race has been forced into the background by intense bitterness between Hylan and Walker. The campaign of vilification carried on by backers of both candidates has created a strained situation reflected in drastic shakeup orders sent to virtually all police officers.

New York, Sept. 15.—With blue coated policemen in attentive cordons around the principal polling places, New York City began at 3 P. M. to cast the votes that will decide the bitterly fought issue between Mayor John F. Hylan and Senator "Jimmy" Walker, and between the men behind them, William Randolph Hearst and Governor Smith.

Voting started briskly when the polls opened with official "watchers" closely scanning the voters as they came to the booths.

Interest centered in the democratic primary contest between Hylan and Walker, with the latter a 5 to 1 favorite at post time and declared by his Tammany backers to be "as good as nominated."

DEATH INTERRUPTS GAME OF HIDE AND SEEK OF YOUNGSTERS

DIRTY KERCHIEF IS ONLY CLUE TO MURDER OF BOY

WAS FOUND STUFFED IN MOUTH OF LITTLE "BUDDY"
SCHUMACHER

PRIVATE FUNERAL SERVICES
HELD, 4 PLAYMATES ARE HONORARY PALMBEARERS

Milwaukee, Wis., Sept. 15.—(UP)—With a dirty handkerchief as their only clue, detectives and police today set out to find the murderer of Arthur "Buddy" Schumacher, 8, whose decomposed body was found in a clump of bushes near Wauwatosa Sunday.

As the officials went about their investigation in a systematic manner, private funeral services were held at Mount Olive church for the murdered boy. Four of his little playmates, who were with him the day he disappeared, July 24, will act as honorary palmbearers.

The handkerchief, about 16 inches square, was found stuffed in the child's mouth at the post mortem examination of the body.

While still intact, the handkerchief is so stained that laundry marks or initials are invisible.

Dr. Edward Miloslavich, pathologist, today will try through a solution to whiten it and will then make a thorough inspection with high powered glasses in an effort to find some distinguishing mark.

The handkerchief, according to authorities, clearly indicates that Buddy was the victim of a brutal assault. Doctors, detectives, the coroner and the district attorney all agree that the child was led into the brush, either by force or pretense and was strangled. The large handkerchief was then rammed into the mouth to silence his outcries and while his life was ebbing he was outraged.

Death was caused by suffocation and officials declare the little fellow never had a chance for his life.

The child's assailant, in the excitement, crowded the gag so far back into the boy's mouth that both throat and nasal passages were stopped up.

While detectives were working on the case reports came from Wauwatosa that at least four other children had been molested or attacked in that vicinity.

SING TONGS SIGN PEACE
COMPACT

New York, Sept. 15.—(UP)—While Chinese leaders, representing the hostile On Leong and Hip Sing tongs, were signing a peace compact, federal agents and city detectives swooped down on Chinatown and seized 450 Orientals. More than 100 were held for further examination.

The treaty was signed after hours of conference. Telegrams were sent to all tong lodges throughout the country:

"Peace has been signed at Chinese Consul General's office at midnight. All relations friendly. Notify all members. Letters of confirmation will follow."

While the treaty was being signed, Chinese on the streets of Chinatown, on the Bowery and at other points of the city were stopped and asked to show their credentials. Those who could show immediately legal right to residence were let go. Others were taken before Commissioner Cotter for hearings. Before the proceedings were adjourned more than 100 had been held for further examination and possible deportation.

WILL TOUCH 28 LARGE CITIES IN ALL PARTS NATION

ROUTES WILL EXTEND APPROXIMATELY 4,675
MILES

8 ROUTES LEASED TO COMMERCIAL FIRMS TO BE SUPPLEMENTED BY OTHERS

By JOSEPH S. WASNEY
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Washington, Sept. 15.—Eight air mail routes, touching 28 large cities in all parts of the nation and extending 4,675 miles, will be running within two or three months if the post office department accepts bids for their operation, submitted today.

The eight routes to be leased to commercial firms will be supplemented by several other lines as soon as possible, Postmaster General Harry S. New told the United Press today.

All the new lines will act as "feeders" to the government operated transcontinental route and New expects to extend the system until it touches every large city in the nation.

After the eight projected routes are in operation, New hopes to advertise routes from New York to Miami, Fla.; Chicago to Cheyenne, Wyo. and Chicago to New Orleans. Still further lines will be advertised as rapidly as petitions asking for them are filed.

The lines to be operated, if proper bids are received today, follow:

1. Boston, Hartford, New York.
2. Chicago, LaCrosse, St. Paul, Minneapolis.
3. Chicago, Indianapolis, Louisville, Nashville, Birmingham.
4. Chicago, Moline, St. Joseph, Kansas City, Wichita, Oklahoma City, Dallas and Fort Worth.
5. Chicago, Springfield, St. Louis.
6. Salt Lake City Las Vegas, Los Angeles.
7. Elko, Boise, Pasco, Washington.
8. Seattle, Portland, Medford, Sacramento, San Francisco, Fresno, Bakersfield, Los Angeles.

Operators of the new air mail line will be allowed to carry packages or passengers at their own rates but they will receive from Uncle Sam only four-fifths of the special postage on the mail they will carry. The postage fee, however, will act as a sort of government subsidy for commercial aeronautics, it is hoped.

Round trips daily on all routes are required by the department and to maintain the post office schedule the mail planes must average 90 miles an hour.

Following the establishment of lines to act as feeders and the advertising of additional routes New, it is understood, will prepare to "lease" the transcontinental system to a private company.

TWIN CITY FLYING FIELD AS LINK IN THE SYSTEM

St. Paul, Sept. 15.—A Twin Cities flying field to provide facilities for the proposed link with the government transcontinental air mail route has already been chosen and will be offered for use of the National Air Transportation Corporation, Colonel L. H. Brittin, industrial director of the St. Paul association, announced today.

The air route will bring New York closer to the Twin Cities in point of time than Chicago is now, Brittin said. A letter mailed here before 3 P. M. will be delivered in New York at 9 A. M. the following day. The projected service will be a significant step in development of the Twin Cities, it is believed.

The floods were caused by breaking of dikes at Linpi Shih but advices here do not confirm earlier reports of heavy casualties. Central News dispatches via London said 3,000 had been drowned.

London, Sept. 15.—The Exchange Telegraph's Bagdad correspondent today quoted refugees from Iraq as saying the Turks were massacring Christians at Marga.

They were further reported driving Christians out of the Goya area.

Marga lies to the east of Mosul, near the border of Persia.

ENGLAND'S PROTESTS TO LEAGUE OF NATIONS

Geneva, Sept. 15.—England protested today to the League of Nations that Turkey was deporting the entire Christian population from the disrupted Mosul territory.

Decision as to disposition of Mosul with its supposedly rich oil resources is still pending.

A proposal has been made that Britain accept a prolongation of her mandate over Iraq, thereby holding onto Mosul. The Turks, however, have declared that they do not feel themselves bound by League decisions. They contend they should have absolute jurisdiction over Mosul.

The League's disarmament commission voted to ask the council to summon an international conference on manufacture of war munitions and invite the United States to participate.

VURSELL RESIGNS, EFFECTIVE AT ONCE

Chicago, Sept. 15.—Charles W. Vursell, one of the law enforcement officers for this federal dry division, has resigned, effective at once, it was announced today.

Vursell gave no reason, except to state that he might run for a political office.

WILL TOUCH 28 LARGE CITIES IN ALL PARTS NATION

ROUTES WILL EXTEND APPROXIMATELY 4,675 MILES

8 ROUTES LEASED TO COMMERCIAL FIRMS TO BE SUPPLEMENTED BY OTHERS

By JOSEPH S. WASNEY
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Washington, Sept. 15.—Eight air mail routes, touching 28 large cities in all parts of the nation and extending 4,675 miles, will be running within two or three months if the post office department accepts bids for their operation, submitted today.

The eight routes to be leased to commercial firms will be supplemented by several other lines as soon as possible. Postmaster General Harry S. New told the United Press today. All the new lines will act as "feeders" to the government operated transcontinental route and New expects to extend the system until it touches every large city in the nation.

After the eight projected routes are in operation, New hopes to advertise routes from New York to Miami, Fla.; Chicago to Cheyenne, Wyo. and Chicago to New Orleans. Still further lines will be advertised as rapidly as petitions asking for them are filed.

The lines to be operated, if proper bids are received today, follow:

1. Boston, Hartford, New York.
2. Chicago, LaCrosse, St. Paul, Minneapolis.
3. Chicago, Indianapolis, Louisville, Nashville, Birmingham.
4. Chicago, Moline St. Joseph, Kansas City, Wichita, Oklahoma City, Dallas and Fort Worth.
5. Chicago, Springfield, St. Louis.
6. Salt Lake City Las Vegas, Los Angeles.
7. Elko, Boise, Pasco, Washington.
8. Seattle, Portland, Medford, Sacramento, San Francisco, Fresno, Bakersfield, Los Angeles.

Operators of the new air mail line will be allowed to carry packages or passengers at their own rates but they will receive from Uncle Sam only four-fifths of the special postage on the mail they will carry. The postage fee, however, will act as a sort of government subsidy for commercial aeronautics, it is hoped.

Round trips daily on all routes are required by the department and to maintain the post office schedule the mail planes must average 90 miles an hour.

Following the establishment of lines to act as feeders and the advertising of additional routes New, it is understood, will prepare to "lease" the transcontinental system to a private company.

TWIN CITY FLYING FIELD AS LINK IN THE SYSTEM

St. Paul, Sept. 15.—A Twin Cities flying field to provide facilities for the proposed link with the government transcontinental air mail route has already been chosen and will be offered for use of the National Air Transportation Corporation, Colonel L. H. Brittin, industrial director of the St. Paul association, announced today.

The air route will bring New York closer to the Twin Cities in point of time than Chicago is now, Brittin said. A letter mailed here before 3 P. M. will be delivered in New York at 9 A. M. the following day. The projected service will be a significant step in development of the Twin Cities, it is believed.

THINK 350,000 VOTES TO BE CAST WISCONSIN TODAY

POLLS TO SELECT PARTY CANDIDATES FOR UNITED STATES SENATOR

FARMER VOTE BELIEVED TO BE LIGHTER THAN USUAL

Madison, Wis., Sept. 14.—(UP)—Conservative estimates by political observers, based on the vote polled in the state at the last presidential election, indicate that more than 350,000 ballots will be cast today by voters of Wisconsin at the polls to select their party candidates for United States senator.

This, it was pointed out, will be a heavy primary vote for the state and will vary depending on the weather.

Neutral weather conditions this morning indicate that the farmer vote will be lighter than usual. They are busy with fall harvesting and a large number of them are expected to forego the privilege of voting. The feminine vote, however, will be heavier than usual, should the day turn out bright and sunshiny.

More than 700,000 votes were cast in the last presidential election, but this cannot hope to be equalled today observers declared.

RAIN THREATENS ON DAY OF VOTING

Milwaukee, Wis., Sept. 15.—Low hanging clouds which threatened rain, greeted voters of Wisconsin today as they went to select the party candidates for United States senator.

Rain fell during the night and there was every indication more would fall during the day, which would keep many of the voters, who would otherwise have gone to the polls, away.

Political observers believe the vote will be light and that only between 350,000 to 400,000 votes will be cast.

Republican candidates for the nomination are:

Robert M. LaFollette, Jr., progressive; Roy P. Wilcox, choice of the republican convention and Coolidge supporter; Francis E. McGovern, former progressive governor, and Daniel Woodward, endorsed by the Ku Klux Klan.

William George Bruce is the democratic candidate, having been selected by the democratic conference in Milwaukee, but because he does not favor the League of Nations and the World Court, those opposed to him called a meeting and urged democrats of the state to write in the name of C. B. Rogers, Fort Atkinson.

John M. Work is the socialist candidate. After one of the most bitter political campaigns in the history of the state, the candidates were at ease today, having completed their "stumping tours."

Wilcox ended his primary campaign with a talk at Milwaukee last night, while LaFollette closed with an address at Madison. McGovern spoke at several Milwaukee industrial plants in his final drive for votes.

Of the six candidates, two issued pre-primary statements that they expected to be elected, both McGovern and Wilcox issued statements saying that from observation in different parts of the state, while on their speaking tours, they were convinced the voters would rally to their support at the polls today. Followers of LaFollette were not backward in predicting a sweeping victory for their candidate.

Despite the bitter pre-primary fight and the fact that the candidates have gone into every corner of the state on their speaking tours, not much interest is being displayed by the voters, it is said. While the city vote is expected to be fair, it is said the farmer vote will be exceptionally light.

WEATHER CONDITIONS FAVORABLE AT NOON

Madison, Wis., Sept. 15.—With weather conditions exceedingly favorable indications at noon today pointed to an excellent turnout of Wisconsin voters to select party nominees for the special election of a United States Senator.

SENSATIONAL STORIES ABOUT THE "BEER KING"

HUGE SUMS OF MONEY SPENT, IT IS ALLEGED, TO ENABLE DRUGGAN TO OPERATE

LIVED LIFE OF LUXURY AND OPERATED BEER BUSINESS WHILE CONFINED, ALLEGED

Chicago, Sept. 15.—(UP)—Startling revelations were promised today by federal and county officials who are investigating reports that huge sums of money were spent to enable Terry Druggan, colorful "king of beer" to carry on his business while in jail, to live a life of freedom and luxury and finally to shorten the prison term itself.

Federal Judge James H. Wilkerson is particularly interested in finding out why Druggan was released before his term of one year expired. It was Judge Wilkerson who sought to put a stop to Druggan's beer running activities by jailing him for violation of the federal dry laws.

The county grand jury wants to know why Druggan was permitted so many favors in the county jail and also to see if there is any truth in reports that $2,000 was paid as rental for a jail office from which to carry on his beer running business.

Kansas City, Mo., Sept. 15.—(UP)—Victory for the anthracite coal miners, after a lengthy strike, was predicted by William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, in an address before delegates of the Railway Carmen's convention here. Green declared it was possible for operators to grant higher wages and improve working conditions without increasing the price of coal.

When you admire the handsome appearance of U.S. Royal Balloons—remember also they are True Low-Pressure Balloons

If you are one of the thousands of car owners who have been attracted by the handsome appearance of the all black U. S. Royal Balloons, it will please you to know this—

These tires hold their good looks during the full period of their long service life. They do not show finger marks, mud or grease stains.

The beauty of U. S. Royal Balloons is in addition to those characteristics which have made these tires famous. They are distinctive in being true Low-Pressure balloons.

Their construction and design positively avoid the necessity of over-inflating the tires to insure long service. You can run them at genuine low air pressures and get the comfort that balloon tires are intended to give.

Their "Low-Pressure Tread" is flat. It provides much greater area of road contact than a round tread, thereby distributing the weight evenly to every tread block. That is why the tread wears slowly and evenly.

The continuous flexing of a balloon tire on the road calls for great strength and flexibility of construction. Latex-treated Web Cord, the patented process developed and patented by the United States Rubber Company, meets this flexing perfectly and accounts for the exceptional mileage of U. S. Royal Balloons.

So U. S. Royal Balloons make a real contribution to the beauty and the comfort of the modern car. Start now enjoying the advantages of true Low-Pressure balloons.

BRAINERD ELKS CONVENTION PICTURES

FINKELSTEIN & RUBEN are continuing to show the Brainerd Elks state convention pictures throughout the state. Recent bookings made included St. Cloud on September 30 and October 1 and Chisholm on September 25 and 26.

L. J. Tobin, Exalted Ruler of Eveleth lodge of Elks has inquired about the pictures and writes: "It is our belief that these pictures will prove of unusual interest to all Minnesota Elks."

They are proving of unusual appeal and crowded houses attest to their merit. Past Exalted Ruler Al Mathes, formerly of Brainerd and now located at Santa Monica, California, asked for an official program and said he had heard the convention was a wonderful success.

The parade was of course the climax of the convention and it is featured in the pictures. The Duluth Lodge band won first prize in the band contest and was awarded $300. St. Paul drum corps won the cup and cash $50. Owatonna drum corps won a cup and cash $25. Both these organizations get much publicity in the pictures.

Minneapolis Lodge No. 44 won a prize of $75 for having the largest body of Elks in the parade. Owatonna Lodge No. 1395 had the best appearing body in the parade and was awarded $50. Little Falls Lodge No. 770 had the second largest body in the line of march and was awarded $25. All the prize winners are given extended notice in the pictures exhibited.

SELECTING SEED CORN

FARMERS of the Northwest should now be selecting supplies of seed corn for next year's planting, says A. C. Arny, spokesman for the Minnesota Agricultural experiment station at St. Paul.

"Because dry weather has hastened the maturing of the corn crop, farmers should not delay the selection of seed supplies for next year. Seed corn should be selected by September 20 and stored in a dry well ventilated place where it will cure quickly."

To delay the selection of seed corn is to run the risk of exposing it to killing frosts which reduce its powers of germination and prospects of a good crop next year. One of the best forms of insurance for a corn crop is seed properly selected in advance of killing frosts, properly cured and stored for the winter.

A NATURAL FISH HATCHERY

THE Pillager Herald of recent issue describes the natural fish hatchery on Gull River. The State Game and Fish department has sent three of their employees to take the bass fry from out of Gull River, and they have already succeeded in seining nearly 30,000.

The overflow on the meadows along the Gull and Crow Wing rivers has become a natural spawning ground for bass and during the hot weather the young bass come up to the dam at the outlet of Gull lake, where they are captured and transferred to the nearby lakes, or to the state hatchery at St. Paul.

In the past much of this work was done by volunteers of the Crow Wing fish and game club.

SEN. P. N. STANFIELD ENCOUNTERS COP

CHARGED WITH "THROWING THINGS AROUND" IN A CAFE

Baker, Ore., Sept. 15.—(UP)—Senator R. N. Stanfield, Oregon, republican, was at liberty today under bond of $50 on a charge of drunkenness and disorderly conduct.

He was arrested Sunday night in a cafe here by Policeman Phil Edens. Edens said Stanfield was throwing things about in the cafe and when threatened with arrest by Edens, the senator defied him on the ground that he was a United States senator.

When Edens told Stanfield that he was under arrest, Stanfield struck Edens with a right uppercut under the eye, it was said. Edens retaliated by using his billy almost knocking the senator down before he was subdued.

Stanfield was here with Senator Cameron, Arizona, to conduct a hearing on public land affairs for the Senate Public Land committee.

MAY PRESS CHARGE DISORDERLY CONDUCT

Baker, Ore., Sept. 15.—Whether United States Senator Robert N. Stanfield will return to stand trial on disorderly conduct charges or will forfeit the $50 posted for his appearance, has not been decided, it was indicated today by James H. Nichols, Stanfield's attorney.

The senator was arrested in a cafe here Sunday night and taken to police station on a charge of drunkenness and disorderly conduct. The arrest was made by Patrolman S. W. Edens, who told the city attorney how the affair happened.

"Stanfield was sitting at a table with two women. He appeared sleepy."

"Give me a bite," he said to one. "I went to him and informed him he was arrested. He wanted to fight and I had to call for help."

The two women, according to cafe employees were Kathel Pivet, private secretary to Stanfield in his sheep business at Weiser, Ida., and Christine Dickerson, a Baker woman, who for many years, has been a close friend of the Stanfield family.

City Attorney Frank McCullough said today the charge would be pressed as disorderly conduct, because evidence of drunkenness was insufficient to prove that charge.

BRAINERD ELKS CONVENTION PICTURES

FINKELSTEIN & RUBEN are continuing to show the Brainerd Elks state convention pictures throughout the state. Recent bookings made included St. Cloud on September 30 and October 1 and Chisholm on September 25 and 26.

L. J. Tobin, Exalted Ruler of Eveleth lodge of Elks has inquired about the pictures and writes: "It is our belief that these pictures will prove of unusual interest to all Minnesota Elks."

They are proving of unusual appeal and crowded houses attest to their merit. Past Exalted Ruler Al Mathes, formerly of Brainerd and now located at Santa Monica, California, asked for an official program and said he had heard the convention was a wonderful success.

The parade was of course the climax of the convention and it is featured in the pictures. The Duluth Lodge band won first prize in the band contest and was awarded $300. St. Paul drum corps won the cup and cash $50. Owatonna drum corps won a cup and cash $25. Both these organizations get much publicity in the pictures.

Minneapolis Lodge No. 44 won a prize of $75 for having the largest body of Elks in the parade. Owatonna Lodge No. 1395 had the best appearing body in the parade and was awarded $50. Little Falls Lodge No. 770 had the second largest body in the line of march and was awarded $25. All the prize winners are given extended notice in the pictures exhibited.

SELECTING SEED CORN

FARMERS of the Northwest should now be selecting supplies of seed corn for next year's planting, says A. C. Army, spokesman for the Minnesota Agricultural experiment station at St. Paul.

"Because dry weather has hastened the maturing of the corn crop, farmers should not delay the selection of seed supplies for next year. Seed corn should be selected by September 20 and stored in a dry well ventilated place where it will cure quickly."

To delay the selection of seed corn is to run the risk of exposing it to killing frosts which reduce its powers of germination and prospects of a good crop next year. One of the best forms of insurance for a corn crop is seed properly selected in advance of killing frosts, properly cured and stored for the winter.

A NATURAL FISH HATCHERY

THE Pillager Herald of recent issue describes the natural fish hatchery on Gull River. The State Game and Fish department has sent three of their employees to take the bass fry from out of Gull River, and they have already succeeded in seining nearly 30,000.

The overflow on the meadows along the Gull and Crow Wing rivers has become a natural spawning ground for bass and during the hot weather the young bass come up to the dam at the outlet of Gull lake, where they are captured and transferred to the nearby lakes, or to the state hatchery at St. Paul.

In the past much of this work was done by volunteers of the Crow Wing fish and game club.

CHARGED WITH "THROWING THINGS AROUND" IN A CAFE

Baker, Ore., Sept. 15.—(UP)—Senator R. N. Stanfield, Oregon, republican, was at liberty today under bond of $50 on a charge of drunkenness and disorderly conduct.

He was arrested Sunday night in a cafe here by Policeman Phil Edens. Edens said Stanfield was throwing things about in the cafe and when threatened with arrest by Edens, the senator defied him on the ground that he was a United States senator.

When Edens told Stanfield that he was under arrest, Stanfield struck Edens with a right uppercut under the eye, it was said. Edens retaliated by using his billy almost knocking the senator down before he was subdued.

Stanfield was here with Senator Cameron, Arizona, to conduct a hearing on public land affairs for the Senate Public Land committee.

MAY PRESS CHARGE DISORDERLY CONDUCT

Baker, Ore., Sept. 15.—Whether United States Senator Robert N. Stanfield will return to stand trial on disorderly conduct charges or will forfeit the $50 posted for his appearance, has not been decided, it was indicated today by James H. Nichols, Stanfield's attorney.

The senator was arrested in a cafe here Sunday night and taken to police station on a charge of drunkenness and disorderly conduct. The arrest was made by Patrolman S. W. Edens, who told the city attorney how the affair happened.

"Stanfield was sitting at a table with two women. He appeared sleepy."

"Give me a bite," he said to one. "I went to him and informed him he was arrested. He wanted to fight and I had to call for help."

CHAPTER I. (Continued)

"A ton of provisions and a thousand dollars," he repeated, blankly. Why, that was absurd, out of all possible reason. It would bar the way to fully half this rushing army. It would turn them back at the very threshold of the golden North. Nevertheless, there stood the notice in black and white, a clear and unequivocal warning from the Canadian authorities, evidently designed to forestall fame on the foodless Yukon. From the loud arguments round about him Phillips gathered that opinion on the justice of the measure was about evenly divided; those fortunate men who had come well provided commended it heartily, those less fortunate fellows who were calling close hauled were equally noisy in their denunciations of it. The latter could see in this precautionary ruling nothing except the exercise of a tyrannical power aimed at their ruin, and in consequence they voiced threats, and promises of violence to which Phillips put down as mere resentful mouthings of no actual significance. As for himself, he had never possessed anything like a thousand dollars at one time, therefore the problem of acquiring such a prodigious sum in the immediate future presented appalling difficulties. He had come north to get rich, only to find that it was necessary to be rich in order to get north. A fine situation, truly! A ton of provisions would cost at least five hundred dollars and the expense of transporting it across summer swamps and tundras, then up and over that mysterious and forbidding Chilkoot of which he had heard so much, would bring the total capital required up to impossible proportions. The prospect was indeed dismaying. Phillips had been ashore less than an hour, but already he had gained some faint idea of the country that lay ahead of him; already he had noted the almost absolute lack of transportation; already he had learned the price of packers, and as a result he found himself at an impasse.

One thousand dollars and two hundred pounds. It was enough to dash high hopes. And yet, strangely enough, Phillips was not discouraged. He was rather surprised at his own rebound after the first shock; his reasonless optimism vaguely amazed him, until, in contemplating the matter, he discovered that his thoughts were running somewhat after this fashion:

"They told me I couldn't make it; they said something was sure to happen. Well, it has. I'm up against it—hard. Most fellows would quit and go home, but I shan't. I'm going to win out, somehow, for this is the real thing. This is Life, Adventure. It will be wonderful to look back and say: 'I did it. Nothing stopped me. I landed at Dyea with one hundred and thirty-five dollars, but look at me now!'"

Thoughts such as these were in his mind, and their resolute nature must have been reflected in his face, for a voice aroused him from his meditations.

"It don't seem to faze you much, partner. I s'pose you came heeled?" Phillips looked up and into a sullen, angry face.

"It nearly kills me," he smiled. "I'm the worst heeled man in the crowd."

"Well, it's a darned outrage. A ton of grub! Why, have you seen the trail? Take a look; it's a man-killer, and the rate is forty cents a pound to Linderman. It'll go to fifty now—maybe a dollar—and there aren't enough packers to handle half the stuff."

"Things are worse at Skagway," another man volunteered. "I came up yesterday, and they're losing a hundred head of horses a day—boggling 'em down and breaking their legs. You can walk on dead carcasses from the Porcupine to the Summit."

A third stranger, evidently one of the well-provided few, laughed carelessly. "If you boys can't stand the strain you'd better stay where you are," said he. "Grub's sky-high in Dawson, and mighty short. I knew what I was up against, so I came prepared. Better go home and try it next summer."

The first speaker, he of the sullen visage, turned his back, muttering, resentfully: "Another wise guy! They make me sick! I've a notion to go through anyhow."

"Don't try that," cautioned the man from Skagway. "If you got past the Police they'd follow you to hell but what they'd bring you back. They ain't like our police."

Still meditating his plight, Pierce Phillips edged out of the crowd and walked slowly down the street. It was not a street at all, except by courtesy, for it was no more than an open waterfront faced by a few log buildings and a meandering line of new white tents. Tents were going up everywhere and all of them bore painful evidence of their newness. So did the clothes of their owners for that matter—men's garments still bore their price-tags. The beach was crowded with piles of merchandise over which there was much wrangling, barges plying regularly back and forth from the anchored ships added hourly to the confusion. As outfits were dumped upon the sand their owners assembled them and bore them away to their temporary camp sites. In this occupation every man faced his own responsibilities single-handed, for there were neither drays nor carts nor vehicles of any sort.

As Phillips looked on at the disorder along the water's edge, as he stared up the fir-flanked Dyea valley, whither a steady stream of traffic flowed, he began to feel a fretful eagerness to join in it, to be up and going. Way yonder through those hills towered the Chilkoot, and beyond that was the mighty river rushing toward Dawson City, toward Life and Adventure, for that was what the gold-fields signified to Phillips. Yes, Life! Adventure! He had set out to seek them, to taste the flavor of the world, and there it lay—his world, at least—just out of reach. A fierce impatience, a hot resentment at that senseless restriction which chained him in his tracks, ran through the boy. What right had any one to stop him here at the very door, when just inside great things were happening? Past that white-and-purple barrier which he could see against the sky a new land lay, a radiant land of promise, of mystery, and of fascination; Pierce vowed that he would not, could not, wait. Fortunes would reward the first arrivals; how, then, could he permit these other men to precede him? The world was a good place—it would not let a person starve.

He noted a group of people gathered about some center of attraction whence issued a high-pitched intonation.

"Oh, look at the cute little pea! Klondike croquet, the packer's pastime. Who'll risk a dollar to win a dollar? It's a healthy sport. It's good for young and old—a cheelid can understand it. Three Eskimo igloos and an educated pill!"

"A shell-game!" Pierce Phillips halted in his tracks and stared incredulously, then he smiled. "A shell-game, running wide open on

"... There's three hundred dollars; you cover it and you cover this boy's bet, too."

"The main street of the town!" This was the frontier, the very edge of things. With an odd sense of unreality he felt the world turn back ten years. He had seen shell-games at circuses and fair-grounds when he was much younger, but he supposed they had long since been abandoned in favor of more ingenious and less discreditable methods of robbery. The operator maintained an incessant monologue. At the moment of Pierce's arrival he was directing it at an ox-eyed individual, evidently selected to be the next victim. The fellow was stupid, nevertheless he exercised some caution at first. He won a few dollars, then he lost a few, but, alas! the gambling fever mounted in him and greed finally overcame his hesitation. With an eager gesture he chose a shell and Phillips felt a glow of satisfaction at the realization that the man had once more guessed aright. Drawing forth a wallet, the fellow laid it on the table.

"I'll bet the lump," he cried. The dealer hesitated. "How much you got in that alligator valise?"

"Two hundred dollars."

"Two hundred berries on one bush!" The proprietor of the game was incredulous. "Boys, he aims to leave me cleaner than a snow-bird." Seizing the walnut shell between his thumb and forefinger, he turned it over, but instead of exposing the elusive pellet, he managed, by an almost imperceptible forward movement, to roll it out from under its hiding-place and to conceal it between his third and fourth fingers. The stranger was surprised, dumfounded, at sight of the empty shell. He looked on open-mouthed while his wallet was looted of its contents.

"Every now and then I win a little one," the gambler announced as he politely returned the bill-case to its owner. He lifted another shell, and by some sleight-of-hand managed to replace the pellet upon the table, then gravely flipped a five-dollar gold piece to one of his boosters.

Phillips eyes were quick; from where he stood he had detected the maneuver and it left him hot with indignation. He felt impelled to tell the victim how he had been robbed,

JIGGS MAHONEY COMING

He and Maggie and Dinty Moore and Beautiful Kitty at Park September 21

Jiggs Mahoney, his "darlin'" Maggie, Dinty Moore, beautiful Kitty, and other characters that are growing more popular with readers of the comic supplements each year, will visit Brainerd again in person on next Monday evening, September 21st in a brand new offering, "Bringing Up Father in Gay New York."

Jiggs is the same delightfully funny character that has kept New Park theatre audiences in an uproar on a number of previous visits, but he has entered politics since he was in the city last, and in the play this year he learns some of the vicissitudes of being a New York alderman. Even more comedy than was crowded into the other "Bringing Up Father" shows is promised the theatre-going public on Monday evening.

The chorus in this offering is something entirely new, and one that is

In one sequence of this picture he is caught by his bride-to-be in ardent embrace with Dolores Rousseau, that enticing little bit of Spanish-French femininity, who plays Vera, the maid. Being one of the important scenes in the picture, Director Buckingham took and re-took the "shot" several times. Bobby had no objection and Dolores didn't seem to mind it either. The embrace, the kiss, the sigh were done with much realism.

Tom Mix, famous William Fox star, will be the attraction at the Lyceum theatre next Sunday and Monday. "The Lucky Horseshoe" is the name of his latest picture and he is supported by one of the most brilliant casts ever assembled in one of his productions.

Playing opposite Mr. Mix is dainty and delectable Billie Dove, who has been seen before as the heroine of dashing Tom's romances of the West. Ann Pennington, Follies dancer, also is in the cast, playing a character part as well as doing some of her famous dancing.

She was given her first big opportunity in the principal part in "The Storm," a screen success of about three years ago, based on the stage hit.

One thousand dollars and two hundred pounds. It was enough to dash high hopes. And yet, strangely enough, Phillips was not discouraged. He was rather surprised at his own rebound after the first shock; his reasonless optimism vaguely amazed him, until, in contemplating the matter, he discovered that his thoughts were running somewhat after this fashion:

"They told me I couldn't make it; they said something was sure to happen. Well, it has. I'm up against it—hard. Most fellows would quit and go home, but I shan't. I'm going to win out, somehow, for this is the real thing. This is Life, Adventure. It will be wonderful to look back and say: 'I did it. Nothing stopped me. I landed at Dyea with one hundred and thirty-five dollars, but look at me now!'"

Thoughts such as these were in his mind, and their resolute nature must have been reflected in his face, for a voice aroused him from his meditations.

"It don't seem to faze you much, partner. I s'pose you came heeled?" Phillips looked up and into a sullen, angry face.

"It nearly kills me," he smiled. "I'm the worst heeled man in the crowd."

"Well, it's a darned outrage. A ton of grub! Why, have you seen the trail? Take a look! It's a man-killer, and the rate is forty cents a pound to Linderman. It'll go to fifty now—maybe a dollar—and there aren't enough packers to handle half the stuff."

"Things are worse at Skagway," another man volunteered. "I came up yesterday, and they're losing a hundred head of horses a day—hogging 'em down and breaking their legs. You can walk on dead carcasses from the Porcupine to the Summit."

A third stranger, evidently one of the well-provided few, laughed carelessly. "If you boys can't stand the strain you'd better stay where you are," said he. "Grub's sky-high in Dawson, and mighty short. I knew what I was up against, so I came prepared. Better go home and try it next summer."

The first speaker, he of the sullen visage, turned his back, muttering resentfully: "Another wise guy! They make me sick! I've a notion to go through anyhow."

"Don't try that," cautioned the man from Skagway. "If you got past the Police they'd follow you to hell but what they'd bring you back. They ain't like our police."

Still meditating his plight, Pierce Phillips edged out of the crowd and walked slowly down the street. It was not a street at all, except by courtesy, for it was no more than an open waterfront faced by a few log buildings and a meandering line of new white tents. Tents were going up everywhere and all of them bore painful evidence of their newness. So did the clothes of their owners for that matter—men's garments still bore their price-tags. The beach was crowded with piles of merchandise over which there was much wrangling, barges plying regularly back and forth from the anchored ships added hourly to the confusion. As outfits were dumped upon the sand their owners assembled them and bore them away to their temporary camp sites. In this occupation every man faced his own responsibilities, single-handed, for there were neither drays nor carts nor vehicles of any sort.

As Phillips looked on at the disorder along the water's edge, as he stared up the fir-flanked Dyea valley, whither a steady stream of traffic flowed, he began to feel a fretful eagerness to join in it, to be up and going. Way yonder through those hills towered the Chilkoot, and beyond that was the mighty river rushing toward Dawson City, toward Life and Adventure, for that was what the gold-fields signified to Phillips. Yes, Life! Adventure! He had set out to seek them, to taste the flavor of the world, and there it lay—his world, at least—just out of reach. A fierce impatience, a hot resentment at that senseless restriction which chained him in his tracks, ran through the boy. What right had any one to stop him here at the very door, when just inside great things were happening? Past that white-and-purple barrier which he could see against the sky a new land lay, a radiant land of promise, of mystery, and of fascination; Pierce vowed that he would not, could not, wait. Fortunes would reward the first arrivals; how, then, could he permit these other men to precede him? The world was a good place—it would not let a person starve.

He noted a group of people gathered about some center of attraction whence issued a high-pitched intonation.

"Oh, look at the cute little peat! Klondike croquet, the packer's pastime. Who'll risk a dollar to win a dollar? It's a healthy sport. It's good for young and old—a cheerdid can understand it. Three Eskimo igloos and an educated pill!"

"A shell-game!" Pierce Phillips halted in his tracks and stared incredulously, then he smiled. "A shell-game, running wide open on

"... There's three hundred dollars; you cover it and you cover this boy's bet, too."

This was the frontier, the very edge of things. With an odd sense of unreality he felt the world turn back ten years. He had seen shell-games at circuses and fair-grounds when he was much younger, but he supposed they had long since been abandoned in favor of more ingenious and less discreditable methods of robbery. The operator maintained an incessant monologue. At the moment of Pierce's arrival he was directing it at an ox-eyed individual, evidently selected to be the next victim. The fellow was stupid, nevertheless he exercised some caution at first. He won a few dollars, then he lost a few, but, alas! the gambling fever mounted in him and greed finally overcame his hesitation. With an eager gesture he chose a shell and Phillips felt a glow of satisfaction at the realization that the man had once more guessed aright. Drawing forth a wallet, the fellow laid it on the table.

"I'll bet the lump," he cried. The dealer hesitated. "How much you got in that alligator valise?"

"Two hundred dollars."

"Two hundred berries on one bush!" The proprietor of the game was incredulous. "Boys, he aims to leave me cleaner than a snow-bird." Seizing the walnut shell between his thumb and forefinger, he turned it over, but instead of exposing the elusive pellet, he managed, by an almost imperceptible forward movement, to roll it out from under its hiding-place and to conceal it between his third and fourth fingers. The stranger was surprised, dumfounded, at sight of the empty shell. He looked on open-mouthed while his wallet was looted of its contents.

"Every now and then I win a little one," the gambler announced as he politely returned the bill-case to its owner. He lifted another shell, and by some sleight-of-hand managed to replace the pellet upon the table, then gravely flipped a five-dollar gold piece to one of his boosters.

Phillips eyes were quick; from where he stood he had detected the maneuver and it left him hot with indignation. He felt impelled to tell the victim how he had been robbed,

JIGGS MAHONEY COMING

He and Maggie and Dinty Moore and Beautiful Kitty at Park September 21

Jiggs Mahoney, his "darlin' Maggie, Dinty Moore, beautiful Kitty, and other characters that are growing more popular with readers of the comic supplements each year, will visit Brainerd again in person on next Monday evening, September 21st in a brand new offering, "Bringing Up Father in Gay New York."

Jiggs is the same delightfully funny character that has kept New Park theatre audiences in an uproar on a number of previous visits, but he has entered politics since he was in the city last, and in the play this year he learns some of the vicissitudes of being a New York alderman. Even more comedy than was crowded into the other "Bringing Up Father" shows is promised the theatre-going public on Monday evening.

The chorus in this offering is something entirely new, and one that is

Agnew Would Have Yet Another Law
Robert Agnew, who plays the young bridegroom in "Troubles of a Bride," the new Thomas Buckingham thriller, is showing at the Lyceum theatre tonight and Wednesday is a very modern young American. He likes to work hard and he likes to play.

In one sequence of this picture he is caught by his bride-to-be in ardent embrace with Dolores Rousse, that enticing little bit of Spanish-French feminism, who plays Vera, the maid. Being one of the important scenes in the picture, Director Buckingham took and re-took the "shot" several times. Bobby had no objection and Dolores didn't seem to mind it either. The embrace, the kiss, the sigh were done with much realism.

Tom Mix Picture, "Lucky Horseshoe," Booked at Lyceum

Tom Mix, famous William Fox star, will be the attraction at the Lyceum theatre next Sunday and Monday. "The Lucky Horseshoe" is the name of his latest picture and he is supported by one of the most brilliant casts ever assembled in one of his productions.

Playing opposite Mr. Mix is dainty and delectable Billie Dove, who has been seen before as the heroine of dashing Tom's romances of the West. Ann Pennington, Folies dancer, also is in the cast, playing a character part as well as doing some of her famous dancing.

The extras' bench at the old Esplanade Studio in Chicago, from which the humble station Gloria Swanson, Agnes Ayres and other leading lights of the film world have risen to the seats of the popular, also marked the start of Virginia Valli's screen career.

She was given her first big opportunity in the principal part in "The Storm," a screen success of about three years ago, based on the stage hit.

Miss Valli is again supporting Thomas Meighan, playing the leading feminine role in "The Man Who Found Himself," a Booth Tarkington story showing at the Park last time tonight.

USED CAR CONCERN FOLDS ITS TENT

OWNERS OF 50 USED CARS VALUED AT $20,000 ARE APPREHENSIVE

St. Paul, Sept. 15.—(UP)—Police were searching for officials of a used car concern, which suddenly ceased to exist after two months of activity during which notes were taken here for more than 50 used cars to total approximately $20,000.

The company is thought to have been a branch of the national used car swindle, which has victimized hundreds of buyers in more than a dozen large cities.

No criminal charge has been placed against the missing promoters as none of their notes have yet come due but police are confident they will not reappear to meet payments. Most of the notes given for cars were short time personal loans signed by James Collins, president of the company.

DUCK BOMBARDMENT BEGINS TOMORROW

100 LICENSES WERE ISSUED ON SATURDAY

ANOTHER BATCH OF 185 ISSUED ON MONDAY, SAYS COUNTY AUDITOR

MORE SMALL GAME HUNTERS THIS YEAR, CLOSED SEASON ON BIG GAME

Crow Wing county hunters are preparing to take to the field when the hunting season opens tomorrow morning for ducks, prairie chickens and sharp tailed grouse. County Auditor C. W. Mahlum was not prepared to give the exact number of licenses issued to date, but states that he believes there will be a record run on these permits. An even 100 were issued on Saturday and 185 on Monday, in addition to two non-resident licenses which were issued by special permission through the county auditor.

It is expected that there will be more small game hunters this fall than last, because this is to be a closed season on all big game, and reports received by the state game and fish department seem to bear out this contention.

Partridge, quail and pheasants cannot be taken this year, but the season is open for ducks, sharp tailed grouse and prairie chickens, beginning tomorrow. The duck season closes on December 31st, and on other wild fowl October 1st.

Under the new laws a hunter is permitted to shoot 12 ducks per day with a limit of 36 in his possession, and a season limit of 120. On other wild fowl he is permitted to shoot 9 per day, with 18 in his possession at one time and a season limit of but 18.

From local reports small game is quite plentiful in Crow Wing county this season. However, nothing can be estimated along this line on wild ducks until colder weather brings down the northern flights.

FOOTBALL IN AN OFFICIAL ENTRANCE IN MINNESOTA

UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA, GUSTAVUS ADOLPHUS, HAMLINE, CARLTON BUSY

HELD THEIR FIRST DRILLS YESTERDAY, ST. THOMAS OPENED EARLIER

Minneapolis, Sept. 15.—(UP)—Football made its official entrance into the Minnesota athletic scene today with practice starting at the University of Minnesota.

Already the resounding thud of boot on ball has been heard on college campuses throughout the state. Hamline, Gustavus Adolphus and Carlton held their first drills yesterday. St. Thomas opened early in the week.

But the northwest's entry in the Big Ten conference, in compliance with the rules of the circuit, waited impatiently until today to turn its ambitious candidates loose on the practice field.

The team that tossed a monkey wrench into the Big Ten works last year by an unexpected victory over Illinois with its mighty Red Grange, seems in a fair way to practice further sabotage this season.

Fifty likely candidates passed in review before Dr. C. W. Spears, new Minnesota coach, as the first session began. Among them were some of the seasoned veterans, who helped the Gophers pull their surprise act last year.

Captain Herman Ascher, Bon Pep-law, Malcolm Graham, Gordon Fisher and Peter Guzy were back on the job and will give the new mentor a nucleus of experience around which to shape his new material.

The shaping process will probably be considerably different than in past seasons. Coach Spears will bring a new mode of play to the Minnesota machine. Himself a former Dartmouth player and coach, Minnesota, under his guidance, is expected to be schooled in the line smashing play of the east.

The material is well suited to eastern tactics with a heavy backfield able to stand the battering of repeated line bucks and off tackle plays. At the same time, there is a wealth of fast reserve backs capable of variations with an open style of play.

Minnesota's season opens with North Dakota, October 3. Grinnell and Wabash colleges follow and should make good practice opponents while the Gophers prepare for their first big game against Notre Dame. Wisconsin, Butler and Iowa follow at home and the season is to be closed with an invasion of Michigan.

Watching the Scoreboard

Holding the Brewers to one hit, a single by Stuart, Walter Beall pitched the Saints to a 4 to 0 victory. The win gave the Saints a firm hold on second place and the Indians, who had been giving them a hard fight for the place, dropped another game.

Tunney had the better of Maun in a pitching duel and the Hens nosed out the Indians, 3 and 2.

Although on hit the Senators made it three straight from the champion Colonels, winning 2 to 1. Tincup on the mound for Louisville and Northrop pitching for the Senators were in rare form.

With each club using four pitchers the Millers won the fourth straight from the Blues, 11 to 10.

Yesterday's Hero—Sam Jones, veteran Yankee pitcher, allowed the Athletics only two hits and won his game, 3 to 1.

The Pirates increased their lead to 6 1/2 games over the New York Giants when they dropped the Dodgers 9 to 4. Vic Aldridge pitched the winner for the Pirates.

No other game was scheduled.

MAJOR LEAGUE PENNANT RACES TO HOME STRETCH

PIRATES INCREASE THEIR LEAD IN NATIONAL LEAGUE TO 6 1/2 GAMES

SENATORS ALSO GAIN HALF A GAME BY WORK OF ATHLETICS

New York, Sept. 15.—(UP)—With the last interseasonal skirmish between the eastern and western teams starting today the major league pennant races turn into the stretch for the finish.

Following yesterday's victory over the Dodgers, while the Giants were idle, the Pirates increased their lead to 6 1/2 games in the National league. The Senators also gained a half game when the Athletics were dropped by the Yankees and they now lead the American league race by eight games.

The Pirates now need 10 more victories to clinch the pennant if the Giants should win all their remaining 16 games and the Senators cannot be beaten if they win 12 more games and the Athletics win all their remaining 19 games.

BIG BILL TILDEN SEEMS DESTINED TO HOLD HIS TITLE

TILDEN WILL SURVIVE ANOTHER "NARROW ESCAPE" BY NEXT SATURDAY

TALL CHAMPION HAD A SORE SHOULDER EARLY IN THE SEASON

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Forest Hills, N. Y., Sept. 15.—Despite the narrow escape he had in practically all of his important matches this season, big Bill Tilden seems to be in no grave danger of losing the national tennis championship which he has held for five years.

There are some of the world's best players in the field that is competing here in the national championships and there has been a disposition to judge Tilden as being off his game but it is a safe bet that when the final round is completed next Saturday Tilden will have survived another "narrow escape."

The tall champion had a sore shoulder in the early part of the season and he played in so many small matches that he may have become stale but he showed in his first match yesterday against the hard hitting Carl Fischer, the former intercollegiate champion, that the resourcefulness of his game has not been impaired.

Billy Johnston, Vinnie Richards, La Coste and Borotra are the big threats, but Tilden has beaten them all in the past and he has not gone back so far as to be in any critical danger now.

All of the ranking stars and the seeded players survived the routine of the first round yesterday. There is only one exciting match on the second round card today.

Rene La Coste will play Frank Hunter, the hard hitting Olympic star, in the most important match of the day.

Other feature matches will be between Tilden and Lucien Williams, Chicago; Johnston against Leon De Turenne, Portland; and Brian Norton and Ray Brown, St. Louis.

Rene La Coste, 20 year old French tennis star and the Wimbledon champion, who was called yesterday to report for military duty, has received an extension of one week and will be able to play through the American national championships.

West Side Tennis Club, Forest Hills, N. Y., Sept. 15.—Less than 300 tennis fans braved the chilly weather and threat of rain to watch the second round of the American national singles championship.

Brian Norton defeated Wray Brown, both of St. Louis, in straight sets at 6-1, 6-4 and 6-1.

Howard Kinsey, California, defeated Elliott Binheim, New York, 6-1, 6-2 and 6-4.

William Johnston, California star, defeated Leon D. Turenne, Portland, former Harvard star, in a match that almost went into extra sets at 6-0, 6-4 and 10-8.

SELECT SLUGGERS DEFEAT MISFITS

KITTENBALL GAME RESULTS IN TOP HEAVY SCORE OF 19 TO 5

Anderson's Select Sluggers, kittenball team, successfully kept their slate clean by defeating Meifert's on Monday evening at the athletic park by a score of 19 to 5.

The game was featured by the heavy hitting of the winners; Peterson getting two home runs and Thorkildson and Anderson one each. Every man on the team, however, contributed his share toward bringing about the top-heavy score.

Dahlin, the Sluggers' new pitcher, pitched steady ball throughout, and got himself out of several holes nicely. Crust also twirled a nice game until he blew up in the last inning, when the Sluggers presented him with a terrific bombardment of hits and runs.

The lineups were as follows:
Sluggers—Anderson, c; Dahlin, p; Nash, 1st b; Lyddon, 2nd b; Peterson, ss; Thorkildson, 3rd b; Swanson, lf; Ringer, cf; George, rf.

Misfits—Tribur, c; Crust, p; Webster, 1st b; Golst, ss; Dieckhaus, 2nd

FOOTBALL GROANS INTO ACTION TODAY IN WESTERN AREA

WESTERN CONFERENCE 10 MEMBER UNIVERSITIES START CONDITIONING

750 ATHLETES OUT FOR PRACTICE, NOTRE DAME GETS OUT SHOCK CORPS

Chicago, Sept. 15.—(UP)—Western Conference football machines groaned into action today as the 10 member universities started conditioning 750 athletes for the fall season. Notre Dame university also called out the pick of its famous "Hall Teams" for the first varsity practice.

Dr. Clarence E. Spears, formerly of West Virginia University, took charge at Minnesota; George Little became the mentor at Wisconsin, and Jack Ryan started his work as assistant to coach Thistlethwaite at Northwestern, in the only coaching staff changes of importance.

With opening games at most institutions but three weeks distant, the football coaches have their work cut out for them and the practice of having two sessions a day with the candidates will rule in most schools.

Encouraging advance reports come from all of the conference schools. Illinois, Ohio state, Michigan, Chicago and Iowa expect good teams. Improved strength is looked for by Northwestern, Minnesota and Wisconsin. Purdue and Indiana are hoping the increase in high school elevens in the hoosier state during the past three years will send more ripening material to them and result in a boost in power.

The weather changed from sizzling heat to a brisk coolness just in time for the conference practice season.

STANDARD OIL CO. SO ACCUSES STATE GOVERNMENT OF SOUTH DAKOTA

PATERNALISM IN GOVERNMENT ISSUE OF NEXT CAMPAIGN

Pierre, S. D., Sept. 15.—Charges of socialism in the state government were broadcast through South Dakota today in newspaper advertisements of the Standard Oil Company. With proposed meetings for state and senatorial candidates drawing near, it is becoming plain that paternalism in the state government will be the issue of the forthcoming campaign.

Governor Carl Gunderson and Senator Peter Norbeck are identified with the socialistic republican faction. Opposing them is former Governor Sam Elrod, leader of the conservative republicans.

Minor disagreements within the two factions further complicate the political situation and the most bitterly contested campaign in years is looked for next winter.

DUCK BOMBARDMENT BEGINS TOMORROW

100 LICENSES WERE ISSUED ON SATURDAY

ANOTHER BATCH OF 185 ISSUED ON MONDAY, SAYS COUNTY AUDITOR

MORE SMALL GAME HUNTERS THIS YEAR, CLOSED SEASON ON BIG GAME

Crow Wing county hunters are preparing to take to the field when the hunting season opens tomorrow morning for ducks, prairie chickens and sharp tailed grouse. County Auditor C. W. Mahlum was not prepared to give the exact number of licenses issued to date, but states that he believes there will be a record run on these permits. An even 100 were issued on Saturday and 185 on Monday, in addition to two non-resident licenses which were issued by special permission through the county auditor.

It is expected that there will be more small game hunters this fall than last, because this is to be a closed season on all big game, and reports received by the state game and fish department seem to bear out this contention.

Partridge, quail and pheasants cannot be taken this year, but the season is open for ducks, sharp tailed grouse and prairie chickens, beginning tomorrow. The duck season closes on December 31st, and on other wild fowl October 1st.

Under the new laws a hunter is permitted to shoot 12 ducks per day with a limit of 36 in his possession, and a season limit of 120. On other wild fowl he is permitted to shoot 9 per day, with 18 in his possession at one time and a season limit of but 18.

From local reports small game is quite plentiful in Crow Wing county this season. However, nothing can be estimated along this line on wild ducks until colder weather brings down the northern flights.

FOOTBALL IN AN OFFICIAL ENTRANCE IN MINNESOTA

UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA, GUSTAVUS ADOLPHUS, HAMLINE, CARLTON BUSY

HELD THEIR FIRST DRILLS YESTERDAY, ST. THOMAS OPENED EARLIER

Minneapolis, Sept. 15.—(UP)—Football made its official entrance into the Minnesota athletic scene today with practice starting at the University of Minnesota.

Already the resounding thud of boot on ball has been heard on college campuses throughout the state. Hamline, Gustavus Adolphus and Carlton held their first drills yesterday. St. Thomas opened early in the week.

But the northwest's entry in the Big Ten conference, in compliance with the rules of the circuit, waited impatiently until today to turn its ambitious candidates loose on the practice field.

The team that tossed a monkey wrench into the Big Ten works last year by an unexpected victory over Illinois with its mighty Red Grange, seems in a fair way to practice further sabotage this season.

Fifty likely candidates passed in review before Dr. C. W. Spears, new Minnesota coach, as the first session began. Among them were some of the seasoned veterans, who helped the Gophers pull their surprise act last year.

Captain Herman Ascher, Bon Peplaw, Malcolm Graham, Gordon Fisher and Peter Guzy were back on the job and will give the new mentor a nucleus of experience around which to shape his new material.

The shaping process will probably be considerably different than in past seasons. Coach Spears will bring a new mode of play to the Minnesota machine. Himself a former Dartmouth player and coach, Minnesota, under his guidance, is expected to be schooled in the line smashing play of the east.

The material is well suited to eastern tactics with a heavy backfield able to stand the battering of repeated line bucks and off tackle plays. At the same time, there is a wealth of fast reserve backs capable of variations with an open style of play.

Minnesota's season opens with North Dakota, October 3. Grinnell and Wabash colleges follow and should make good practice opponents while the Gophers prepare for their first big game against Notre Dame, Wisconsin, Butler and Iowa follow at home and the season is to be closed with an invasion of Michigan.

Following yesterday's victory over the Dodgers, while the Giants were idle, the Pirates increased their lead to 6 1/2 games in the National league. The Senators also gained a half game when the Athletics were dropped by the Yankees and they now lead the American league race by eight games.

The Pirates now need 10 more victories to clinch the pennant if the Giants should win all their remaining 16 games and the Senators cannot be beaten if they win 12 more games and the Athletics win all their remaining 19 games.

BIG BILL TILDEN SEEMS DESTINED TO HOLD HIS TITLE

TILDEN WILL SURVIVE ANOTHER "NARROW ESCAPE" BY NEXT SATURDAY

TALL CHAMPION HAD A SORE SHOULDER EARLY IN THE SEASON

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Forest Hills, N. Y., Sept. 15.—Despite the narrow escape he had in practically all of his important matches this season, big Bill Tilden seems to be in no grave danger of losing the national tennis championship which he has held for five years.

There are some of the world's best players in the field that is competing here in the national championships and there has been a disposition to judge Tilden as being off his game but it is a safe bet that when the final round is completed next Saturday Tilden will have survived another "narrow escape."

The tall champion had a sore shoulder in the early part of the season and he played in so many small matches that he may have become stale but he showed in his first match yesterday against the hard hitting Carl Fischer, the former intercollegiate champion, that the resourcefulness of his game has not been impaired.

Billy Johnston, Vinnie Richards, La Coste and Borotra are the big threats, but Tilden has beaten them all in the past and he has not gone back so far as to be in any critical danger now.

All of the ranking stars and the seeded players survived the routine of the first round yesterday. There is only one exciting match on the second round card today.

Rene La Coste will play Frank Hunter, the hard hitting Olympic star, in the most important match of the day.

Other feature matches will be between Tilden and Lucien Williams, Chicago; Johnston against Leon De Turenne, Portland; and Brian Norton and Ray Brown, St. Louis.

Rene La Coste, 20 year old French tennis star and the Wimbledon champion, who was called yesterday to report for military duty, has received an extension of one week and will be able to play through the American national championships.

West Side Tennis Club, Forest Hills, N. Y., Sept. 15.—Less than 300 tennis fans braved the chilly weather and threat of rain to watch the second round of the American national singles championship.

Brian Norton defeated Wray Brown, both of St. Louis, in straight sets at 6-1, 6-4 and 6-1.

Howard Kinsey, California, defeated Elliott Babinheim, New York, 6-1, 6-2 and 6-4.

William Johnston, California star, defeated Leon D. Turenne, Portland, former Harvard star, in a match that almost went into extra sets at 6-0, 6-4 and 10-8.

SELECT SLUGGERS DEFEAT MISFITS

KITTENBALL GAME RESULTS IN TOP HEAVY SCORE OF 19 TO 5

Anderson's Select Sluggers, kittenball team, successfully kept their slate clean by defeating Meifert's on Monday evening at the athletic park by a score of 19 to 5.

The game was featured by the heavy hitting of the winners; Peterson getting two home runs and Thor-kildson and Anderson one each. Every man on the team, however, contributed his share toward bringing about the top-heavy score.

Dahlin, the Sluggers' new pitcher, pitched steady ball throughout, and got himself out of several holes nicely. Crust also twirled a nice game until he blew up in the last inning, when the Sluggers presented him with a terrific bombardment of hits and runs.

The lineups were as follows:
Sluggers—Anderson, c; Dahlin, p; Nash, 1st b; Lyddon, 2nd b; Peterson, ss; Thorkildson, 3rd b; Swanson, lf; Ringer, cf; George, rf.
Misfits—Tribur, c; Crust, p; Weber, 1st b; Golst, ss; Dieckhaus, 2nd

ROBERT W. CRUST ON SCHOOL BOARD

Succeeds Elmer L. Dahl, Who Recently Resigned From Board of Education

FINANCE COMMITTEE REPORTS

Estimate For Tax Levy May be About Same as Last Year

Robert W. Crust was elected member of the Brainerd Board of Education at Monday evening's meeting to succeed Elmer L. Dahl, resigned. Mr. Dahl tendered his resignation as a member of the board from the Third ward, made necessary by his moving to the Fifth. He expressed his regret at being compelled to take this action, stating that he had enjoyed the work very much, and complimented the members upon the friendly manner in which they had always met and settled important decisions. He had served six years on the board and had just entered upon a new four-year term last spring.

Mr. Crust's name was proposed to the board and on a formal ballot was unanimously elected to serve until the next general city election in 1927. The board adopted a resolution setting forth its appointment and the president officially declared the new member elected. Mr. Crust has always been a resident of Northeast Brainerd, and has its interests at heart. It is believed that he will make an excellent successor to Mr. Dahl, and a valuable member of the board.

F. M. Hagberg, chairman of the finance committee, although not able to be present at Monday night's meeting, made a report through the president that the estimate on the tax levy for this year, would, in his belief, be the same as that of last year. The final estimate on the tax levy will be submitted to the board at its October meeting.

A petition was received signed by 14 residents of the Mill district, asking that the board provide transportation of students from this section of the city to the high school, or to the downtown district where the children would be within a reasonable distance from the high school. After considerable discussion, the board upon motion decided to refuse the petition.

The quarterly report of the treasurer for the quarter ending July 31st was received and by direction of the president referred to the finance committee for checking.

A communication was received from the Travelers Insurance Co., in the form of a report covering a recent inspection of the boilers in the various school buildings, being both an internal and external inspection. The report stated that the boilers were found to be in good condition.

Superintendent W. C. Cobb reported in detail on the school attendance this year, showing that at the beginning of the second week of school there was an increase this year in the high school, and a slight decrease in the grades as compared with the last week in September of last year. The report in detail will be published in the Dispatch.

The building committee submitted its report on repairs and improvements made or contemplated and suggested for the various buildings, which was received and action taken as suggested. The committee was directed to install a motor at the Whittier building as per its recommendation, and the matter of putting on a top dressing on the grading recently completed around the Lowell building was left with the committee in conjunction with board members from the Third ward. The item of shingling the whole or part of the roof of the Harrison building, as suggested in the report, was left in the hands of the committee and the members of the board from the Fourth ward.

The teachers committee reported having engaged the following teachers: The Misses Grace M. Cedarstrand, Gertrude Huntley and Thelma Bowers for the high school, and Jeanette Van Beek for the sewing department. For grade work Mildred Peterson, Mary Brown, Hilda Fossum, Verona Pagel, Hilda Skarsten, Wava Hendrickson and Hannah Bengard were employed.

A requisition for floor brushes as needed by the janitors in the various buildings for the coming year, was referred to the committee on fuel, supplies and printing in conjunction with the secretary.

The August payroll of the officers of the board, the city superintendent and janitors, amounting to $1,350, was on motion allowed.

In the absence of the chairman of the finance committee, a motion carried that all claims and bills presented at the meeting be allowed after they had been passed and approved by the finance committee.

Board members absent were R. M. Hagberg and Elmer L. Dahl.

"McKAY ROAD" IS INSPECTED

Ronte Skirts Mississippi River on Bluffs Along West and North Banks

LIKE DULUTH BOULEVARD

County Commissioners and City Council Committees Accompanied by Engineers

On Saturday afternoon representatives of the city council and the board of county commissioners made a trip of inspection of what is known as the "McKay road" skirting the Mississippi river on the bluffs along its west and north banks, with the view of possibly converting it into a popular scenic drive along the lines of the boulevard drive in Duluth.

In the party were Frank Lowey and A. G. Anderson, representing the county commissioners, County Highway Engineer Walter M. Murphy, the street committee of the city council, and City Engineer R. T. Campbell. All were much interested in the proposed improvement, and felt that the road might be made a real asset to the city.

As planned by those who are fostering this project, the road will start in West Brainerd, follow the banks of the river north until it comes near Ahren's hill, when it swings off around scenic Gilbert lake and meets the Merrifield road a short distance north of the hill, at the Senn corner. This road would be about four miles long, one and one-half miles of which would be in the city limits, and the balance under county supervision.

The county commissioners, at their last meeting took up the matter of improving this road, and have made a proposition to the city council, which if accepted, will mean the starting of some improvements this fall. Included in the mile and one-half of road within the city limits is a dangerous hill, and if accidents occur thereon, the city would be held liable. For this reason it is felt that the hill at least should be graded down, and if this is done and the city improves the balance of the road under its supervision, the county will clear and brush the balance of the way to the Merrifield road, with the view of continuing the improvements later.

This matter will come before the city council at its next meeting on Monday evening, September 21st, when some disposition will be made of it.

COUNTY EXHIBIT AT STATE FAIR

Takes Sixth Place in Exhibit Contest and Third in Beauty of Arrangement This Year

SCORES TOTAL OF 1103 POINTS

All Other Counties Competing Had Financial Aid Totalling From $500 to $1,500

Crow Wing county took sixth prize in its county exhibit at the Minnesota State Fair last week, and third prize in beauty of exhibits in the contest open to counties in the northern section of the state. Aitkin county carried off first prize and Roseau took second in the contest.

County Agent E. G. Roth states that the contest was an exceedingly close one, with all counties putting up a hard fight for honors. As a proof of this assertion Crow Wing county's score was only 40 points below the number secured by Aitkin county in taking first prize, and only a few points below the county that carried off third place.

Crow Wing county's total points scored were 1,103 1/4, out of a possible 1,250 points. Last year this county's total number of points scored amounted to only 1050, showing a marked improvement in the past year.

Mr. Roth stated that he feels that this county made a remarkably good record in the view of the fact that every other county in this northern district had special financial aid in preparing its exhibits, which aid extended over this year's entire growing season, and ranged from $500 to $1,500 per county. Aitkin county is said to have extended over $1,200 in such aid for the growing and preparation of its county exhibit.

Crow Wing county scored its highest on stock vegetables, netting a total of 122 1/2 points out of a possible 125, and second highest on sheaf and threshed grains, with 94 points in each class out of a possible 100. Where points were seriously lost, however, were in garden vegetables and canning exhibits, by not having a sufficient quantity of each, said the county agent.

Mr. Roth lays special stress on the value of the county exhibit at the state fair. He says that literally thousands of people visited the Crow Wing county booth and all were loud in their praise of the agricultural showing. Dozens of interested farmers inquired the price of farm lands in this county.

The county agent strongly recommends that plans be made in the near future for special funds to be used in growing and preparing an especially fine exhibit for next year's fair, so that this county will be in shape to contest other counties in this section on an equal footing. He also suggests that plenty of advertising literature be prepared for distribution at next year's booth at the state fair, so that prospective buyers of farms in this county may be given a comprehensive idea of what can and is being done here along agricultural lines.

Much credit is due Mr. Roth for his efforts in getting this year's exhibit together, which he did practically single handed. A great deal of time and much hard work are necessary in preparing such an exhibit as Mr. Roth took to the state fair, and the county agent gave of both very freely. He feels very much indebted to a number of ladies of the county who greatly assisted in attractively arranging the booth, and who were responsible in a large measure for the exhibit taking third prize in the beauty of arrangement competition.

Imgrund-Johnson

Louis Imgrund and Miss Margaret L. Johnson were united in marriage at 10 o'clock Monday morning, at the parsonage of St. Francis church, Rev. Father James Hogan officiating. The attendants were Mrs. Mardelle Johnson, sister of the bride and Edward Imgrund, brother of the groom.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served to the bridal party at the home of the bride's parents, 704 Fourth avenue, Northeast. The newlyweds left immediately thereafter on a motor trip to Duluth, the North Shore and Port Arthur. They will be at home at 522 North Third street after October 1st.

Both contracting parties are well and favorably known in Brainerd. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Imgrund, and is associated with his father in the Imgrund Auto Co. The groom is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Johnson. She attended the public schools and is a graduate of the Brainerd Commercial College. For several years she was employed as stenographer in the county auditor's office, and has been engaged in that capacity for some time in the office of the judge of probate.

The Dispatch joins the many friends of these young people in offering congratulations and best wishes.

sease this hacking cough may be apparent only to those about the one affected, or may be noticed only in the morning or upon going outside to cooler air or inside to warmer, or after exertion, violent laughing or other excitement.

These early coughs may be blamed on many things, such as bronchial irritation, tickling in the throat, nasal trouble, nervousness and many other things and so go for long periods of time untreated. A persistent cough should always focus the attention on the lungs. One author has said that a person who has never coughed until after his twentieth year and coughs for more than a month should be strongly suspected of having pulmonary tuberculosis.

All coughs lasting for a month or more should suggest tuberculosis and demand a chest examination to prove their origin.

ROBERT W. CRUST ON SCHOOL BOARD

Succeeds Elmer L. Dahl, Who Recently Resigned From Board of Education

FINANCE COMMITTEE REPORTS

Estimate For Tax Levy May be About Same as Last Year

Robert W. Crust was elected member of the Brainerd Board of Education at Monday evening's meeting to succeed Elmer L. Dahl, resigned. Mr. Dahl tendered his resignation as a member of the board from the Third ward, made necessary by his moving to the Fifth. He expressed his regret at being compelled to take this action, stating that he had enjoyed the work very much, and complimented the members upon the friendly manner in which they had always met and settled important decisions. He had served six years on the board and had just entered upon a new four-year term last spring.

Mr. Crust's name was proposed to the board and on a formal ballot was unanimously elected to serve until the next general city election in 1927. The board adopted a resolution setting forth its appointment and the president officially declared the new member elected. Mr. Crust has always been a resident of Northeast Brainerd, and has its interests at heart. It is believed that he will make an excellent successor to Mr. Dahl, and a valuable member of the board.

F. M. Hagberg, chairman of the finance committee, although not able to be present at Monday night's meeting, made a report through the president that the estimate on the tax levy for this year, would, in his belief, be the same as that of last year. The final estimate on the tax levy will be submitted to the board at its October meeting.

A petition was received signed by 14 residents of the Mill district, asking that the board provide transportation of students from this section of the city to the high school, or to the downtown district where the children would be within a reasonable distance from the high school. After considerable discussion, the board upon motion decided to refuse the petition.

The quarterly report of the treasurer for the quarter ending July 31st was received and by direction of the president referred to the finance committee for checking.

A communication was received from the Travelers Insurance Co., in the form of a report covering a recent inspection of the boilers in the various school buildings, being both an internal and external inspection. The report stated that the boilers were found to be in good condition.

Superintendent W. C. Cobb reported in detail on the school attendance this year, showing that at the beginning of the second week of school there was an increase this year in the high school, and a slight decrease in the grades as compared with the last week in September of last year. The report in detail will be published in the Dispatch.

The building committee submitted its report on repairs and improvements made or contemplated and suggested for the various buildings, which was received and action taken as suggested. The committee was directed to install a motor at the Whitaker building as per its recommendation, and the matter of putting on a top dressing on the grading recently completed around the Lowell building was left with the committee in conjunction with board members from the Third ward. The item of shingling the whole or part of the roof of the Harrison building, as suggested in the report, was left in the hands of the committee and the members of the board from the Fourth ward.

The teachers committee reported having engaged the following teachers: The Misses Grace M. Cedarstrand, Gertrude Huntley and Thelma Bowers for the high school, and Jeanette Van Beck for the sewing department. For grade work Mildred Peterson, Mary Brown, Hilda Fossum, Verona Pagel, Hilda Skarsten, Wava Hendrickson and Hannah Bengard were employed.

A requisition for floor brushes as needed by the janitors in the various buildings for the coming year, was referred to the committee on fuel, supplies and printing in conjunction with the secretary.

The August payroll of the officers of the board, the city superintendent and janitors, amounting to $1,356, was on motion allowed.

In the absence of the chairman of the finance committee, a motion carried that all claims and bills presented at the meeting be allowed after they had been passed and approved by the finance committee.

Board members absent were F. M. Hagberg and Elmer L. Dahl.

"McKAY ROAD" IS INSPECTED

Route Skirts Mississippi River on Bluffs Along West and North Banks

LIKE DULUTH BOULEVARD

County Commissioners and City Council Committees Accompanied by Engineers

On Saturday afternoon representatives of the city council and the board of county commissioners made a trip of inspection of what is known as the "McKay road" skirting the Mississippi river on the bluffs along its west and north banks, with the view of possibly converting it into a popular scenic drive along the lines of the boulevard drive in Duluth.

In the party were Frank Lowey and A. G. Anderson, representing the county commissioners, County Highway Engineer Walter M. Murphy, the street committee of the city council, and City Engineer R. T. Campbell. All were much interested in the proposed improvement, and felt that the road might be made a real asset to the city.

As planned by those who are fostering this project, the road will start in West Brainerd, follow the banks of the river north until it comes near Ahren's hill, when it swings off around scenic Gilbert lake and meets the Merrifield road a short distance north of the hill, at the Senn corner. This road would be about four miles long, one and one-half miles of which would be in the city limits, and the balance under county supervision.

The county commissioners, at their last meeting took up the matter of improving this road, and have made a proposition to the city council, which if accepted, will mean the starting of some improvements this fall. Included in the mile and one-half of road within the city limits is a dangerous hill, and if accidents occur thereon, the city would be held liable. For this reason it is felt that the hill at least should be graded down, and if this is done and the city improves the balance of the road under its supervision, the county will clear and brush the balance of the way to the Merrifield road, with the view of continuing the improvements later.

This matter will come before the city council at its next meeting on Monday evening, September 21st, when some disposition will be made of it.

COUNTY EXHIBIT AT STATE FAIR

Takes Sixth Place in Exhibit Contest and Third in Beauty of Arrangement This Year

SCORES TOTAL OF 1103 POINTS

All Other Counties Competing Had Financial Aid Totalling From $500 to $1,500

Crow Wing county took sixth prize in its county exhibit at the Minnesota State Fair last week, and third prize in beauty of exhibits in the contest open to counties in the northern section of the state. Aitkin county carried off first prize and Roseau took second in the contest.

TRAVEL NOT ALWAYS EXCUSE FOR DEFEAT

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, Sept. 15.—Hardships of travel, differences in climate and playing conditions have always been quoted as excuses for the failure—if the case so happened—of eastern football teams to live up to form against western teams in California.

Eastern defenders, when there was a defense needed, held that the long trip across the continent, the strange weather and unfamiliar fields militated against the eastern team and worked to the advantage of the western team.

Not only in football but more particularly in international tennis, the travel has been held as working a tremendous disadvantage against the players who have to do the traveling.

The theory, however, was exploded completely at Forest Hills recently when the team of British women players, after a voyage of 3,000 miles from London, under unfamiliar turf conditions and with a ball that was strange to the majority of them, defeated the American team and retained possession of the Wightman Cup.

The cup, put into competition by Mrs. Hazel Hotchkiss Wightman, wife of the former president of the United States Lawn Tennis association, for the purpose of establishing a Davis Cup contest for women players, was played for in 1923 for the first time.

The British team came to Forest Hills and was defeated by a score of 7 to 0. The visitors had only two days to practice for the matches, they were not familiar with the lively ball that is used in this country and they did not have the feel of the faster American turf.

The following year, in 1924, the association sent a team of its best players, headed by Helen Wills, the national champion, to Europe to defend the cup and to play in the British championships at Wimbledon and in the Olympic matches at Paris.

The Americans lost the cup by a score of 6 to 1 and Miss Wills was beaten twice and the excuse was made that the handicap of traveling, climate, etc., was too much to be borne by women players.

It was put forward then that the cup would alternate between England and the United States according to the country in which the matches were played.

This year, however, the British team, under the same handicap that the Americans were at Wimbledon, came to Forest Hills and successfully defended the cup, winning the tournament by a score of 4 to 3.

Miss McKane, the former British champion, who was here in 1923, was the only member of the British team who had any experience with the American ball and the only one who had played before in this country.

So, it would seem, that class holds in the long run and that climate, the rigors of travel, etc., haven't so much to do with it as some excusers would like.

*****

Within a few weeks, Capt. Red Grange, ranked as one of the greatest players of all time, will lead his Illinois football team against Pennsylvania in Philadelphia. Grange, beyond all doubt, is one of the greatest football stars that ever pulled on a shoe. In his two years as a varsity player he has averaged 10 yards every time he was given the ball.

AMERICAN DEBT FUNDING BODY HEARS FROM PARIS

REPORTS OF DISPATCHES RECEIVED WITH GREAT SATISFACTION

AMERICA TO ASK FRANCE FOR PAYMENT OF PRINCIPAL IN FULL

Washington, Sept. 15.—(UP)—American debt funding commission today received with satisfaction dispatches from Paris telling that finance minister Joseph Caillaux had received from the French cabinet full powers to effect a settlement of the French debt to the United States. Caillaux sails with the French mission for this country tomorrow.

This country, according to an influential member of the debt commission, will require payment of the $3,000,000,000 principal in full, with payment of interest adjusted to the capacity of France to pay.

The American commission is well fortified for the negotiations by private studies made of French conditions by its members as well as by its expert staffs. Edward N. Hurley of Chicago; Representative Theo. Burton of Ohio and under Secretary of the Treasury Winston have recently made trips to France; Secretary of the Treasury Mellon, chairman of the commission, visited that country last year. Secretary of State Kellogg has just returned from a prolonged residence in London as American ambassador, in which capacity he had ample opportunity to study French conditions.

The French mission is due in New York September 22 and the negotiations probably will get underway by September 26.

BORGLUM TO CARVE GIGANTIC MEMORIAL IN MOUNTAIN ROCK

Pierre, S. D., Sept. 15.—(UP)—Preliminary operations at Rushmore mountain, where Gutzum Borglum, deceased sculptor of the southern Stone Mountain memorial, will carve gigantic heads of Lincoln and Grant, were started today.

Initial steps at Rushmore are to be financed by the state. Later, if completion of the monument seems feasible, a campaign will be launched to finance the sculptor's work.

SUMMARIZE THE DRIFT OF FARMERS PROSPERITY HERE

TESTIMONY INTRODUCED AT I.C.C. RATE HEARING AT CHICAGO

FARMER ALSO PROFITS FROM THE VOLUME OF PRODUCTION

Chicago, Sept. 15.—(UP)—Present commodity prices probably will be maintained for some time to come, George E. Roberts, vice president of the National City Bank of New York, testified here today at the special Interstate Commerce commission hearing on the request of western railroads for a 5 per cent increase in freight rates.

The present system of prices is so firmly established and its various features so interlocked that there is no prospect of its being lowered materially, except by influences which would operate slowly over a long period of time, he said.

"On the other hand I see no insuperable obstacles to attaining the equilibrium upon about the present level and there are very significant indications that this is being accomplished."

The drift of agricultural prosperity was summarized by David Friday, economist and former president of the Michigan Agricultural college as being upward.

"For the past 100 years," Dr. Friday said, "the prices of agricultural products have tended to increase more rapidly than the prices of other commodities and there is every reason to believe that this more favorable trend will continue in the future."

This increase has been "materially greater in the west than in the east," Friday said.

"From 1897 to 1924, the prices of farm products increased 141 per cent, while the prices of non-agricultural commodities increased 124 per cent," Dr. Friday continued.

"Not only has the farmer profited from the 141 per cent increase, which has occurred in the unit prices of the products which he sells, but he also has profited heavily by the increase in the volume of his production, which he has sold at these higher prices."

"The enormous increase which has occurred in agricultural income is reflected by corresponding increases in the value of farm lands. In the first 20 years of this century, farm values per acre in the country as a whole had increased from $15.57 to $57.36. "Figures show ever greater gains were made by the west."

Chicago, Sept. 15.—The shippers' side of the argument in the petition of western railroads for a 5 per cent increase in rates will be heard starting October 26, Clyde B. Atchison, chairman of the I. C. C., announced today. Hearings will be heard in Chicago October 26, St. Paul November 9, Denver November 16, San Francisco November 23, Dallas December 2, and Kansas City December 14.

STOCKS ENCOUNTER HEAVY SELLING

New York, Sept. 15.—Stocks encountered heavy selling in today's session. Substantial declines from their recent highs took place among the leaders of the recent bull market and the general market was unsettled most of the day. Something happened in the outside news to account for this irregularity. An organized attempt was made to precipitate selling through warnings regarding the effect of the proposed McFadden bill to regulate branch banking, but inasmuch as bankers themselves are not agreed as to the probable influence of the measure in case it becomes a law, it is likely that the bearish propaganda would have received any attention if the market had not been in a tentative receptive mood.

The selling reached top orders when the decline had been set in motion and sharp reaction ensued in stocks like American Can, Steel, Studebaker, Mack Truck, Chandler and other recent leaders.

But despite the wet blanket which the pressure on this group constituted, operations for the rise persisted in a few stocks notably in Pullman and several representative coppers.

The market closed lower.

GRAIN RECEIPTS HEAD OF LAKES

Duluth, Sept. 15.—(UP)—Seventy-five million bushels of grain has been shipped from Duluth and Superior elevators on lake freighters since the opening of navigation this year, it was announced today.

The figure represents an increase of 20,000,000 bushels over shipments last year for a corresponding period.

MODIFICATION OF FREIGHT RATES

Washington, Sept. 15.—(UP)—The Interstate Commerce commission today granted the Minneapolis, St. Paul & Sault Ste Marie railroad relief under a long and short haul modification on class rates from Duluth to points on the line between Erskine and Parkers Prairie and points between Minneapolis and St. Paul and Detroit, Minn., and Albany, Minn.

Class rates between Minneapolis and St. Paul and North Dakota points are to be investigated before granting relief to the carrier in the case.

MINNESOTA POTATO RATES

Washington, Sept. 15.—(UP)—Suspended schedules proposing increased rates on potatoes from Michigan, Minnesota and Wisconsin to Alabama and Tennessee were ordered cancelled today by the Interstate Commerce commission, effective October 12.

The carriers propose to abolish joint through rates, leaving the Ohio river combination rates as the only applicable tariff. This would have increased the rates to Birmingham, Ala., out of line with the adjustments to other southern points, it was said.

The rates were protested by the Northern Potato association and the Peoria Association of Commerce.

ASKED TO KEEP THE WOMEN'S CLUBS OUT OF POLITICS

Fairmont, Minn., Sept. 15.—(UP)—Members of the Minnesota Federation of Women's Clubs have been asked to keep the organization clear of political entanglements.

Five hundred delegates from the 600 clubs of the state attending the annual meeting of the body today heard the opening plea of Mrs. Beaz Wilson, Redwood Falls, president to exclude politics from the club's activities.

While it is highly desirable every member of the organization, as an individual, take part in workings of various political parties, it is necessary that she realizes that the federation as a whole can have no place in such activities."

TRAVEL NOT ALWAYS EXCUSE FOR DEFEAT

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, Sept. 15.—Hardships of travel, differences in climate and playing conditions have always been quoted as excuses for the failure—if the case so happened—of eastern football teams to live up to form against western teams in California.

Eastern defenders, when there was a defense needed, held that the long trip across the continent, the strange weather and unfamiliar fields militated against the eastern team and worked to the advantage of the western team.

Not only in football but more particularly in international tennis, the travel has been held as working a tremendous disadvantage against the players who have to do the traveling.

The theory, however, was exploded completely at Forest Hills recently when the team of British women players, after a voyage of 3,000 miles from London, under unfamiliar turf conditions and with a ball that was strange to the majority of them, defeated the American team and retained possession of the Wightman Cup.

The cup, put into competition by Mrs. Hazel Hotchkiss Wightman, wife of the former president of the United States Lawn Tennis association, for the purpose of establishing a Davis Cup contest for women players, was played for in 1923 for the first time.

The British team came to Forest Hills and was defeated by a score of 7 to 0. The visitors had only two days to practice for the matches, they were not familiar with the lively ball that is used in this country and they did not have the feel of the faster American turf.

The following year, in 1924, the association sent a team of its best players, headed by Helen Wills, the national champion, to Europe to defend the cup and to play in the British championships at Wimbledon and in the Olympic matches at Paris.

The Americans lost the cup by a score of 6 to 1 and Miss Wills was beaten twice and the excuse was made that the handicap of traveling, climate, etc., was too much to be borne by women players.

It was put forward then that the cup would alternate between England and the United States according to the country in which the matches were played.

This year, however, the British team, under the same handicap that the Americans were at Wimbledon, came to Forest Hills and successfully defended the cup, winning the tournament by a score of 4 to 3.

Miss McKane, the former British champion, who was here in 1923, was the only member of the British team who had any experience with the American ball and the only one who had played before in this country.

So, it would seem, that class holds in the long run and that climate, the rigors of travel, etc., haven't so much to do with it as some excusers would like.

Within a few weeks, Capt. Red Grange, ranked as one of the greatest players of all time, will lead his Illinois football team against Pennsylvania in Philadelphia. Grange, beyond all doubt, is one of the greatest football stars that ever pulled on a shoe. In his two years as a varsity player he has averaged 10 yards every time he was given the ball.

AMERICAN DEBT FUNDING BODY HEARS FROM PARIS

REPORTS OF DISPATCHES RECEIVED WITH GREAT SATISFACTION

AMERICA TO ASK FRANCE FOR PAYMENT OF PRINCIPAL IN FULL

Washington, Sept. 15.—(UP)—American debt funding commission today received with satisfaction dispatches from Paris telling that finance minister Joseph Caillaux had received from the French cabinet full powers to effect a settlement of the French debt to the United States. Caillaux sails with the French mission for this country tomorrow.

This country, according to an influential member of the debt commission, will require payment of the $3,000,000,000 principal in full, with payment of interest adjusted to the capacity of France to pay.

The American commission is well fortified for the negotiations by private studies made of French conditions by its members as well as by its expert staffs. Edward N. Hurley of Chicago; Representative Theo. Burton of Ohio and under Secretary of the Treasury Winston have recently made trips to France; Secretary of the Treasury Mellon, chairman of the commission, visited that country last year. Secretary of State Kellogg has just returned from a prolonged residence in London as American ambassador, in which capacity he had ample opportunity to study French conditions.

The French mission is due in New York September 22 and the negotiations probably will get underway by September 26.

BORGLUM TO CARVE GIGANTIC MEMORIAL IN MOUNTAIN ROCK

Pierre, S. D., Sept. 15.—(UP)—Preliminary operations at Rushmore mountain, where Gutzum Borglum, deposited sculptor of the southern Stone Mountain memorial, will carve gigantic heads of Lincoln and Grant, were started today.

Initial steps at Rushmore are to be financed by the state. Later, if completion of the monument seems feasible, a campaign will be launched to finance the sculptor's work.

SUMMARIZE THE DRIFT OF FARMERS PROSPERITY HERE

TESTIMONY INTRODUCED AT L.C.C. RATE HEARING AT CHICAGO

FARMER ALSO PROFITS FROM THE VOLUME OF PRODUCTION

Chicago, Sept. 15.—(UP)—Present commodity prices probably will be maintained for some time to come, George E. Roberts, vice president of the National City Bank of New York, testified here today at the special Interstate Commerce commission hearing on the request of western railroads for a 5 per cent increase in freight rates.

The present system of prices is so firmly established and its various features so interlocked that there is no prospect of its being lowered materially, except by influences which would operate slowly over a long period of time, he said.

"On the other hand I see no insuperable obstacles to attaining the equilibrium upon about the present level and there are very significant indications that this is being accomplished."

The drift of agricultural prosperity was summarized by David Friday, economist and former president of the Michigan Agricultural college as being upward.

"For the past 100 years," Dr. Friday said, "the prices of agricultural products have tended to increase more rapidly than the prices of other commodities and there is every reason to believe that this more favorable trend will continue in the future."

This increase has been "materially greater in the west than in the east," Friday said.

"From 1897 to 1924, the prices of farm products increased 141 per cent, while the prices of non-agricultural commodities increased 124 per cent," Dr. Friday continued.

"Not only has the farmer profited from the 141 per cent increase, which has occurred in the unit prices of the products which he sells, but he also has profited heavily by the increase in the volume of his production, which he has sold at these higher prices."

"The enormous increase which has occurred in agricultural income is reflected by corresponding increases in the value of farm lands. In the first 20 years of this century, farm values per acre in the country as a whole had increased from $15.57 to $57.36."

"Figures show ever greater gains were made by the west."

STOCKS ENCOUNTER HEAVY SELLING

New York, Sept. 15.—Stocks encountered heavy selling in today's session. Substantial declines from their recent highs took place among the leaders of the recent bull market and the general market was unsettled most of the day. Something happened in the outside news to account for this irregularity. An organized attempt was made to precipitate selling through warnings regarding the effect of the proposed McFadden bill to regulate branch banking, but inasmuch as bankers themselves are not agreed as to the probable influence of the measure in case it becomes a law, it is likely that the bearish propaganda would have received any attention if the market had not been in a tentative receptive mood.

The selling reached stop orders, when the decline had been set in motion and sharp reaction ensued in stocks like American Can, Steel, Studebaker, Mack Truck, Chandler and other recent leaders.

But despite the wet blanket which the pressure on this group constituted, operations for the rise persisted in a few stocks notably in Pullman and several representative copiers.

The market closed lower.

GRAIN RECEIPTS HEAD OF LAKES

Duluth, Sept. 15.—(UP)—Seventy-five million bushels of grain has been shipped from Duluth and Superior elevators on lake freighters since the opening of navigation this year, it was announced today.

The figure represents an increase of 20,000,000 bushels over shipments last year for a corresponding period.

MODIFICATION OF FREIGHT RATES

Washington, Sept. 15.—(UP)—The Interstate Commerce commission today granted the Minneapolis, St. Paul & Sault Ste Marie railroad relief under a long and short haul modification on class rates from Duluth to points on the line between Erskine and Parkers Prairie and points between Minneapolis and St. Paul and Detroit, Minn., and Albany, Minn.

Class rates between Minneapolis and St. Paul and North Dakota points are to be investigated before granting relief to the carrier in the case.

The carriers propose to abolish joint through rates, leaving the Ohio river combination rates as the only applicable tariff. This would have increased the rates to Birmingham, Ala., out of line with the adjustments to other southern points, it was said.

The rates were protested by the Northern Potato association and the Peoria Association of Commerce.

ASKED TO KEEP THE WOMEN'S CLUBS OUT OF POLITICS

Fairmont, Minn., Sept. 15.—(UP)—Members of the Minnesota Federation of Women's Clubs have been asked to keep the organization clear of political entanglements.

Five hundred delegates from the 600 clubs of the state attending the annual meeting of the body today heard the opening plea of Mrs. Beaz Wilson, Redwood Falls, president to exclude politics from the club's activities.

While it is highly desirable every member of the organization, as an individual, take part in workings of various political parties, it is necessary that she realizes that the federation as a whole can have no place in such activities.
